Our community hall playground is a central hub for families and children in the area, especially during our many community events throughout the year. Due to high use, the existing gravel surface has worn thin in several areas exposing the underlay and creating potential safety hazards. To maintain a safe and welcoming environment, we are seeking funding to replenish the gravel and repair any damage to restore full coverage across the playground. These improvements will help prevent injuries, meet safety standards and ensure the playground remains a safe accessible space for all kids to enjoy Other Revenue Towards Project/Purchase:
