Hadih Lara, Art, Chris and Hilary,

We hope this email finds you well!

Although it's only February, the warmer temperatures and the first hints of grass pushing through are a reminder that spring is just around the corner. With the change in season comes the exciting reminder that National Indigenous Peoples Day is only a few short months away.

We want to begin by expressing our sincere gratitude for your past support. Your partnership has helped us create meaningful, welcoming spaces for community members to gather, celebrate, learn, and reflect. Your contribution has truly made a difference.

As we look ahead to this year's National Indigenous Peoples Day and the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation events, we are reaching out in hopes that you will consider supporting us once again. These gatherings continue to grow in impact and attendance, and your sponsorship plays an important role in ensuring their success.

Attached you will find our sponsorship request letters for both events. We would be honoured to partner with you again as we work toward delivering powerful, community-centered experiences that celebrate Indigenous cultures, resilience, and reconciliation. If you have any questions or would like to discuss sponsorship opportunities further, please do not hesitate to reach out. We look forward to working together again and continuing this important journey in partnership.
